THOUGHTS ON THE LITURGY

The annual celebration of Easter Sunday is considered the center of the Church year. All Christians (with the exception of the Seventh Day Adventists) have made Sunday their weekly holy day, a day of prayer and rest. The soldiers guarding the tomb did not want to tell what happened, so they made up a story about falling asleep while on guard duty and then telling how some of Jesus' followers stole his body. Any military or any court proceedings would have thrown out that testimony. Sleeping witnesses, indeed!

BISHOP'S INTENTION

Bishop McKnight invites all to pray a special intention each month. This month the intention is "For the healing of all racial divisions in our communities."

CHRISTIAN FAITH FORMATION

PONDER WITH THE POPE

The Dawn of Easter Breaks Out

"Every time we ask forgiveness of one another for our sins against other Christians, and every time we find the courage to grant and receive such forgiveness, we experience the Resurrection! Every time we put behind us our long-standing prejudices and find the courage to build new relationships, we confess that Christ is truly risen! Every time we reflect on the future of the Church in the light of her vocation to unity, the dawn of Easter breaks forth!"

Pope Francis

Reflection: Where do you experience the Resurrection in your life? Where do you need to experience it more?

A Year of Mercy with Pope Francis

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint Maria Crescentia Hoess: Crescentia's (1682-1744) piety was so great that when she entered the Kaufbeuren convent the superior doubted her sincerity and put her to many tests. Reportedly, Crescentia was challenged to carry water in a sieve and succeeded.

Crescentia frequently had mystical experiences, especially after receiving Communion. Often she saw the Holy Spirit and other saints in her visions. Although the visions troubled her, she eventually came to see them as a grace from God.

Even though she was absorbed in prayer, Crescentia always attended to daily needs. She was known for her kindness and hospitality to the poor. As superior, she was a skillful administrator and always insisted on a common sense solution to difficult decisions. Crescentia took care to ensure that the convent was a cheerful place; humor and warmth were always a part of her directives.

YOUTH FAITH FORMATION

The "BeDaditudes" for Dads

Want to be an awesome dad? Here's a sample of how the Eight Beatitudes can help you be the father God is calling you to be.

- 1. Blessed Are Dads Who Are Poor In Spirit. Seek to be a father after THE Father's own heart. Being a dad is on-the-job training. No one has it figured out. Don't pretend you do. Go to God every day. Ask him to teach you to be the husband and father he wants you to be; the husband and father your wife and children need you to be.
- 2. Blessed Are The Dads Who Mourn. Be not afraid of feelings. Empathize with your family's tears, fears and struggles. In scripture, "mourning" doesn't mean "be sad" so much as it means "cultivate a compassionate heart." It is not your job to fix or feel judged by your wife or kids' feelings. It is your job to be present to your wife and kids, to understand why they feel as they do, to show that you care, and to help them work through their feelings in godly ways.
- 3. Blessed Are The Dads Who Are Meek. Meekness isn't weakness. Cultivate the humble strength of a listening heart. In biblical Greek, the word for meek is "praus." It was adjective used to describe a war horse that is not easily spooked in battle and responds readily to its rider's commands. A real leader listens first. The father who is authentically meek is not afraid to listen to God and to attend to the needs his wife and children bring to him especially when doing so requires him to grow, change or learn new skills.
- 4. Blessed Are The Dads Who Hunger And Thirst For Righteousness. Awesome dads are on a mission from God. Live for him. Lead your family to him. Research shows that when dads model discipleship in their lives and relationship and take the lead in prayer, faith formation, and character training in the home, kids are exponentially more likely to live your faith and values as adults. Be the father that leads your family to THE Father.
- 5. Blessed Are The Dads Who Are Merciful. Be a loving mentor in your home. Don't break hearts. Mold them. Don't be "The Punisher." Be a mentor and teacher. Treat your children with respect. Don't just yell or impose harsh consequences when they mess up. Instead, teach them how to meet their needs and express themselves in good and godly ways. Put more energy into encouraging, teaching and supporting good behavior than in punishing bad.
- 6. Blessed Are the Dads Who Are Pure in Heart. Cherish the treasure of your wife and children. Protect their dignity. Affirm their worth. St. John Paul II taught that the opposite of love is use. Love makes people more human. Use makes people into things or tools. Don't treat your wife or kids as the "things" that exist to make YOUR life easier. Set the standard for loving service in your home.
- 7. Blessed Are the Dads Who Are Peacemakers. Keep your house in order. Prioritize your family. Protect the heart of your home. St. Augustine said, "Peace is the tranquility of right order." Be the hands-on dad that makes sure your household is characterized by respect, generosity, mutual service, and orderliness.
- 8. Blessed Are the Dads Who Are Persecuted for the Sake Of Righteousness. The world will try to undermine your effort to be an awesome dad. Be one anyway. When your friends, family-of-origin, co-workers, or employers try to make you sacrifice what's best for your family for what they want, choose your family and know God the Father will honor your sacrifice.
