

ST. PATRICK CATHOLIC CHURCH

AUG. 20TH, 2017
TWENTIETH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

'MY HOUSE SHALL BE A HOUSE OF PRAYER FOR ALL PEOPLE'

God created us for himself, and He wants us back in His heavenly kingdom. Throughout history He has demonstrated His love for mankind. Through His only begotten son, Jesus Christ, He opened the door of heaven to all after our sins had alienated us. And so as we live here on this earth, we are all required to know God, love Him, and serve Him so we can be with Him in His glorious home, heaven.

From the mouth of Moses God declared His intention in these words: "The foreigners who join themselves to the Lord, ministering to Him, loving the name of the Lord, and becoming His servants...I will bring to my holy mountain; for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all." Jesus affirmed this when he asked all to come to Him to have rest: "Come to me all who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest..."(Mt11:28-30).

Like the Canaanite woman, we must come to God with faith, pleading for mercy and healing from sin and division. We also must make all feel welcome at our gatherings. God welcomes all through His son, Jesus, and so must we welcome all. Let us keep in mind that we also were once the lost sheep of Israel but were saved by God's grace. With extended hands let us encourage one another with the words of Jesus: "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish...."(Mt 15:21-28).

SAINT OF THE WEEK

SAINT BERNARD

1090 - 1153

FEAST AUGUST 20

Known as Bernard of Clairvaux, this French abbot and doctor of the church is considered the second founder of the Cistercians. He entered the relatively new monastery at Citeaux in 1113 with four of his own brothers and 27 friends, and later founded the monastery at Clairvaux, which gave birth to 68 other communities. Despite poor health and his devotion to personal mortification, Bernard was an early Western European rock star: He was consulted by popes and kings, battled heresies, and supported the Second Crusade. The sick and maimed lined the roads he traveled, hoping for a miracle. Dante chose Bernard as his final guide in "Paradiso," at the end of "The Divine Comedy." He is the patron of Gibraltar.

WHY DO CATHOLICS DO THAT?

WHY DO CATHOLIC PRIESTS WEAR DIFFERENT COLORED VESTMENTS?

The required colors of the priest vestments are white, red, violet (or purple), and green. It depends on what time in the church calendar, what season, or which feast is being celebrated that determines the color of the vestment. The chasuble (the large outer poncho-like garment) and the stole (the long cloth that is worn around the neck like a scarf) are the color of the season or the Mass being celebrated. White vestments are worn on all joyful festivals and celebrations such as Christmas, Easter, weddings, and the Feast of Our Lady and the feast days of those saints who were not martyrs. Red, the symbol of blood and fire, is worn at Pentecost, on Good Friday, and other celebrations of the Lord's passion or on the feast days of martyrs. Purple is the symbol of penitence and is worn during Advent and Lent. Purple or violet may also be worn at Requiem Masses and funerals. Rose vestments may be worn on the third (Gaudete) Sunday in Advent and on the fourth (Laetare) Sunday in Lent. Green vestments are worn for the Sundays in Ordinary Time and when there is no festival or feast being celebrated.

RCIA

Jesus sent his disciples out to spread the Good News! We are also asked to give His message to others. One way we do this is through the R.C.I.A. (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults). You can share the Good News by telling those you may know who are interested in our faith and encouraging them to join the inquiry group this fall. For questions, call Michele Haggerty (573) 372-8594.

“Let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice” (Psalm 105:3).

R.C.I.A. (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is the process in which adults study the Catholic faith, and if they desire, they become full, active, participating members of the Catholic Church. Weekly meetings are held to discuss scripture, our relationship with God, and much, much more.

R.C.I.A. begins Wednesday, September 20 at 6:30 p.m. at the Religious Education Center.

The is the second time a public rosary will be said in the Capitol Rotunda. The first was last October. A ROSARY IN THE ROTUNDA was started by Mark Kiser, who has only been a Catholic a little over two years! If Mark can do something so tremendous, what are we doing?

Mark was the guest speaker at our June Pilgrimage. He was a former Protestant Minister and is a true mover and shaker for the Catholic Church.

October 7th will be our last novena for Our Lady of Fatima. I hope you will make plans to either attend the ROSARY Novena in the Capitol or the PILGRIMAGE here at the Shrine.
